PRIVATE SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 3.—In connexion with the selection of Indian candidates for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, with a view to their qualifying for King's Commissions in the Indian Army, it is proposed to hold an entrance examination at Simla on the 24th September 1923, for the term commencing at Sandhurst in February 1924. The following information is published for the use of intending candidates:—

(1) Candidates must be between the ages of 18 and 20 on the 1st January 1924 and must state their age definitely.

(2) Candidates are required to furnish a declaration which must be signed by their parents or guardians, to the effect that it is their intention to make the Army their permanent profession.

(3) Candidates must be prepared to pass a qualifying examination the details of syllabus of which is printed as an appendix to this notification. The general educational standard required is that prescribed for the diploma of the Chiefs' Colleges, a school-leaving certificate recognized by a Local Government, the Matriculation examination of an incorporated University or any higher examination.

(4) Candidates will, in addition, undergo a special test consisting of an oral examination conducted on similar lines to the Admiralty test for the Royal Naval Colleges. This examination which is designed to test the intelligence and general knowledge of candidates will be conducted by a Board of officers.

(5) A medical examination, according to the standard laid down in Appendix 18 of the Regulations for the Army Medical Service, 1923, will also be held in Simla. Candidates must attach to their applications a medical certificate from a civil medical officer to the effect that they come up to the standard mentioned above.

(6) The cost of a first-class railway fare from their homes and back will be granted to candidates attending the medical and qualifying examinations in Simla.

Candidates finally nominated to join the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, will also receive the cost of one first-class fare from their residence to the port of embarkation, in India, and a first-class passage by sea to England.

Applications for railway fares should be made to the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Madras.

Passages by sea for candidates selected for admission to the college will be arranged by the Embarkation Commandant, Bombay, under orders from Army Headquarters.

Selected candidates will be sent to England in charge of a British officer, who will be appointed by Army Headquarters and who will meet the candidates at Bombay. Each candidate will hand over to this officer at Bombay the sum of Rs. 300 to cover the cost of expenses incurred during the voyage to England.

(7) The ordinary fees for cadets at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, for two years are as follows :—

(a) For a King's India Cadet—as may be arranged by the Secretary of State for India in Council.

For the son of—

	£ Per annum.
(b) A private gentleman	200
(c) An officer or soldier who has died whilst on full pay, half pay, retired pay or pension, and whose family has been left in pecuniary distress (subject to the approval of the Secretary of State for India).	20
(d) A deceased officer of whatever rank, whose widow is, or would have been, if living, eligible for pension.	55
(e) A soldier who is serving, or who died while serving, with the colours, or who was discharged either on account of ill-health caused by the service, or after at least twenty years' colour service.	55
(f) An officer who is (or, if deceased, was at the time of his death) on the active list holding rank below the substantive rank (as regards combatant, medical, dental and veterinary officers) or the rank (as regards officers holding honorary King's Commissions as Lieutenants and Captains) of Lieutenant-Colonel in the Indian Army.	55
A retired officer who last served in a rank below the above-mentioned ranks, and retired with not less than twenty years' service or on account of age, non-employment, or ill-health caused by the service, or on reduction of establishment.	55
(g) An officer who is (or, if deceased, was at the time of his death) on the active list holding the substantive rank (as regards combatant, medical, dental and veterinary officers) or the rank (as regards officers holding honorary King's Commissions as Lieutenants or Captains) of Lieutenant-Colonel or Colonel in the Indian Army.	80
A retired officer who last served in any of the above ranks and retired as stated in (f).	80
(h) A serving or retired officer not otherwise specially provided for ..	200

If the father of a cadet is promoted, or retires, the rate of contribution will be altered accordingly.

The above fees are exclusive of contingent expenses, sundries, etc., which are as follows :—

	£
Contingent account for four terms	100
Pocket money at £3 per mensem	72
Thirty weeks' vacation at about £5 5s. a week	157
Extra pocket money during vacation at £3 3s. a week	95
Sundries, say	136
Total ..	560

(8) The sum for sundries includes additional expenses during the vacations, such as travelling and entertainments. The expenses of cadets will as far as possible be kept within the above limits, but the parents or guardians of cadets must be prepared to pay any excess over these amounts.

(9) The above estimate does not provide for European kit on arrival in England other than the amount required for college uniform; for the purchase of European kit an additional sum of from £100 to £200 should be provided. Neither does this estimate include anything for the cost of outfit on being commissioned from the college.

(10) The Local Government will receive from parents or guardians punctually in advance at the beginning of each year of the Sandhurst course one-half of the total estimated expenditure for two years and pay it into the local Treasury with full details in each case and with instructions that the credits should be passed to the Secretary of State for India through the outward London Account Current. No cadet will be allowed to pursue a term at the College until the fees for that term have been paid.

(11) An allowance of 4s. a day, in aid of the expenses of messing, washing, and other contingencies, will be admitted as a charge against the public for each cadet so long as he is in residence at the Royal Military College. All other necessary expenses which cannot be covered by this allowance shall be chargeable to the parent or guardian of a cadet.

(12) If a cadet is absent a whole term in consequence of rustication, a payment of £10 shall be required in lieu of the half-year's contribution for the privilege of his name being kept on the rolls of the establishment, and for a vacancy being kept open at the commencement of the next term.

(13) If a cadet is rusticated or removed during a term, his daily allowance shall cease from the date of such rustication or removal, and the contribution made for the half-year shall be forfeited, unless otherwise specially decided by the Army Council.

(14) If a cadet is absent from sickness during a portion of the term, his allowance shall continue to be issued and credited to his account. In exceptional cases a refund of the contribution for the period of absence, may be authorized by the Commandant, and in such cases the cadet's allowance shall cease for the period of the refund.

(15) Indians selected for cadetships will be subject to such rules and regulations as are, or may be, from time to time, established for the maintenance of good order and discipline at the college.

They will, while at the Royal Military College, belong to the ordinary College Mess and no special messing arrangements can be made on their behalf.

Indian cadets are required to appear at all times in the uniform of the college except when on leave or when otherwise exempted by the Commandant, but they will be allowed to wear their national head dress should they so desire.

They will not be allowed to take servants or personal attendants of any kind to the college.

(16) One of the rules for admission to the Royal Military College is that a cadet should be unmarried. This rule will be waived in the case of Indian candidates, but in no circumstances will a cadet be allowed to take his wife or family to England.

(17) The normal length of the course of instruction will be about two years divided into four terms. The college terms will be—

Spring term.—From about beginning of February to about middle of July.

Autumn term.—From about beginning of September to about middle of December.

The intermediate periods will constitute the vacations.

(18) Cadets from India will have to qualify in the ordinary passing out examination and will, on qualifying, be eligible for King's Commissions. Before being passed as fit for a commission, they must be certified to be in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defects likely to interfere with the performance of their military duties. Those who are successful in obtaining commissions will enter the Indian Army as Second Lieutenants.

(19) Unless a Government building is available, candidates will be provided with private accommodation usually in a hotel at Simla. Candidates will be charged for messing, but the cost of the rent of the quarters will be borne by Government. Suitable arrangements will be made for those candidates who are precluded, by caste, from eating the food provided.

Candidates may arrange for quarters in the hotel other than those provided, but they will be liable for any additional cost incurred. Candidates will on no account be allowed to live elsewhere.

Parents or guardians must ensure that candidates are provided with sufficient funds to meet the cost of their expenses while in Simla.

(20) The Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Madras, to whom applications should be made not later than 3rd August, will intimate to the selected candidates the fact of their selection. No application received after the 3rd August will be considered.

(21) Intending candidates should submit their application in the form below:—

FORM OF APPLICATION.

1. Name in full (to be typed or hand printed).
2. Date of birth (this must be definitely stated).
3. Caste and tribe.
4. Name, occupation and address of father, stating if living or deceased.
5. Name, occupation and address of guardian or male next-of-kin in event of father not being alive.
6. Brief summary of any military service rendered by candidate or near relatives.
7. Place and standard of education, examinations passed, with dates, linguistic qualifications other than English, furnishing certificates.
8. Whether able to ride and what games played.
9. Permanent address in India.
10. Particulars of non-military service (if any) in any Government or Civil Department rendered by near relatives of candidate.
11. Whether able to speak English fluently.
12. Vernacular selected as fourth obligatory subject.
13. Optional subjects selected.
14. Whether free-hand drawing selected or not.
15. Medical report.

APPENDIX.

SYLLABUS OF EXAMINATION FOR INDIAN CANDIDATES FOR ADMISSION TO THE ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE, SANDHURST.

1. The subjects of the examination and the maximum number of marks obtainable for each subject are as follows:—

	Marks.
Class I.—Obligatory.
(i) English	2,000
(ii) Indian History and General Geography.	2,000
(iii) Mathematics (Elementary).	2,000
(iv) An Indian Vernacular ..	2,000

	Marks.
Class II.—Optional.
(v) and (vi)—
(a) Urdu	2,000
(b) Persian, Arabic or Sanskrit.	2,000
(c) Physics and Chemistry or General Science.	2,000
(d) Mathematics (Intermediate).	2,000
(e) British Imperial History ..	2,000

2. All the subjects in Class I must be taken up, and not more than two of the subjects of Class II, one only of which may be a language. If Urdu is selected as subject (iv) in Class I, it cannot be taken up as one of the two subjects in Class II. It is notified for the information of candidates that the optional subjects mentioned in (c) and (vi) (c) above—Physics and Chemistry or General Science—are two separate subjects, the syllabus of one being different from that of the other as will be seen from the detailed syllabus below.

Candidates who take up Sanskrit in the qualifying examination are warned to make use of the Deva Nagri character in writing.

Candidates will be required to qualify, i.e., to obtain not less than 50 per cent of the total marks allotted to English and 33 per cent in the other three subjects named in Class I.

3. Candidates who take optional subjects will be required to obtain 33 per cent of the marks allotted to each subject. Marks obtained below 33 per cent will not count in the aggregate.

Candidates who fail in one obligatory subject but make 6,000 marks or more in the aggregate will be classified as qualified candidates according to the aggregate of the marks obtained.

4. In addition to the abovenamed subjects, candidates may take up free-hand drawing to which 400 marks will be allotted.

SYLLABUS OF SUBJECTS FOR THE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION.

English.

(Marks 2,000.)

Essay. Three alternative subjects to be given for an essay or letter of which candidates may choose one.

Reproduction of a passage read out to the candidate.

General paper (to test general knowledge and intelligence).

Indian History (General).

(Marks 1,000.)

Questions will be set which will give the candidate an opportunity of showing his general knowledge of Indian History. Questions will deal only with the broad outline of the subject and knowledge of detail will not be expected. Some choice of questions will be allowed.

Geography.

(Marks 1,000.)

A.—The general geography of the world and its physiographical basis, viz.—

The size and shape of the earth; latitude and longitude; general distribution of land and sea.

The sea; form and temperature of the oceans; drift and stream currents; the tides.

The land: characteristics and distribution of mountains, tablelands, highlands and plains; action of ground and surface water, ice and wind; types of land forms; characteristics of river systems.

Effects of climate on vegetation; characteristics and distribution of forest, grass lands and deserts. Animals characteristic of the chief vegetative regions; the great fishing grounds.

Distribution of population and of occupations in relation to physical features, climate, and vegetation; the natural divisions and the chief products of each continent; geographical reasons for the position of the great cities of the world and the routes between them. Frontiers.

Simple methods of making maps

Candidates will be expected to show an elementary knowledge of the topography of the world, and to be able to read topographical and statistical maps, including Ordnance Survey maps.

B.—The Geography of India in detail, particularly its frontiers.

Mathematics (Elementary).

(Marks 2,000.)

Arithmetic.—The ordinary processes of arithmetic; the commoner units in the tables of measurement of length, area, volume (including pints, quarts, gallons) and weight (avoirdupois); the metre, gramme and litre with their commoner multiples and sub-multiples; franc and centime, dollar and cent. A knowledge of recurring decimals and the process of extracting the cube root will not be required. Questions will not be set on "present worth" or "true discount". The use of contracted methods will not be required.

Questions will also be set on the use of callipers and vernier, on determination of areas by dimensions (rectilinear figures, circles), by squared paper, by weighing; area of cross-section and diameter of a tube; determination of volume, by dimensions (rectangular block, sphere, cylinder), by displacement (overflow, graduated jar, burette), by weighing; use of balance; determination of density and specific gravity.

The use of algebraic symbols and processes and the use of slide rules and tables of logarithms will be allowed.

Algebra.—The expression of an arithmetical generalization in a formula; easy questions on the simplification of algebraical expressions, such as might arise in dealing with practical problems; interpretation of a formula; evaluation of a formula for numerical values of its variables; simple equations; easy quadratic equations; solution of two linear simultaneous equations; algebraical equivalents of item 32 in the Cambridge Geometry Schedule*; easy factors; easy graphs; change of the subject of formula; the use of four-figure logarithm tables.

Geometry.—Practical and theoretical geometry according to the Cambridge Geometry Schedule*. Proofs will not be required of the propositions marked with an asterisk. Numerical solution of right-angled triangles by geometry or by use of cosine and tangent.

Candidates will be expected to be acquainted with the forms of the simpler solid bodies, namely, the cube, the rectangular block, the sphere, the cylinder, the wedge, the right pyramid, and the cone.

In the absence of special instructions that a question is to be answered by a particular method, candidates are at liberty to choose their method from any branch of mathematics.

An Indian Vernacular.

(Marks 2,000.)

1. Translation from the Vernacular into English.
2. Translation from English into the Vernacular.
3. An essay or letter on one or two alternative subjects.
4. Colloquial. Candidates to—
   (i) talk in the Vernacular;
   (ii) write a short dictated passage in the Vernacular.

Urdu.

(Marks 2,000.)

1. Translation from Urdu into English.
2. Translation from English into Urdu.
3. An essay or letter on one or two alternative subjects.
4. Colloquial. Candidates to—
   (i) talk in Urdu;
   (ii) write a short dictated passage in Urdu.

Persian, Arabic or Sanskrit.

(Marks 2,000.)

1. Translation from Persian, Arabic or Sanskrit into English.
2. Translation from English into Persian, Arabic or Sanskrit.

* See pages 751—759 infra.

Physics and Chemistry.

(Marks 2,000.)

Physics.

(a) Heat and Optics.—Sources and production of heat; thermometry; expansion; calorimetry, specific heat, change of state latent heat; convection, conduction and radiation. Relation of heat to other forms of energy; the mechanical equivalent of heat. Practical applications.

Production and propagation of light; the reflection and refraction of light at plane and spherical surfaces; the formation of images; mirrors and simple lenses; simple optical instruments. Dispersion and colour; vision.

(b) Electricity and Magnetism.—Simple experiments and measurements with magnets; lines of force; terrestrial magnetism. Elementary principles of electro-statics; electro-static induction. Simple forms of cells, electromotive force, current, resistance; the magnetic, chemical and thermal effects of a current; method of measuring currents. The tangent galvanometer and moving coil galvanometer. Electro-magnetic induction; elementary questions on the application of these principles, e.g., to the dynamo or motor, telegraph or telephone, may be set.

Practical Work.—Simple qualitative experiments to illustrate the phenomena of heat; use of the calorimeter. Experiments with plane and concave mirrors and convex lenses.

Simple experiments on magnetism; mapping fields; comparison of magnetic moments and of pole strengths. The electroscope and electrophorus. Use of the tangent galvanometer to compare resistances and electromotive forces; simple experiments in electrolysis. Wheatstone's Bridge; determination of specific resistance.

In the event of a practical test being impossible the whole of the marks will be allotted to the written papers.

Chemistry.

The distinction between elements, compounds, mixtures; the laws of combination; equivalent weight, molecular weight, atomic weight, and their determination by direct methods only.

The chemistry of the following elements and of their chief compounds—Hydrogen, Chlorine, Bromine, Iodine, Oxygen, Sulphur, Nitrogen, Phosphorus, Carbon, Potassium, Sodium, Zinc, Iron, Copper. Acids, bases, and salts. The relation of the atmosphere to plant and animal life. The part played by carbon in the growth of plants.

Practical Chemistry.—Experiments illustrating the difference between elements, compounds and mixtures; the preparation and properties of the commoner gases and the simpler compounds of the elements in the schedule; observations on the behaviour of bodies under the names of reagents, including bodies not mentioned in the schedule; simple experiments involving weighings and the measurements of volume, including the volume of gases.

In the event of a practical test being impossible the whole of the marks will be allotted to the written papers.

General Science.

(Marks 2,000.)

Papers will be set to test the candidate's knowledge of scientific principles and of their application in everyday life, as indicated in the following schedule:—

Principles of mechanics, illustrated by falling bodies and by simple machines; the meaning of mass, weight, force, energy; the transformations of energy.

The general properties of solids liquids and gases; principles of hydrostatics with practical applications; motions of diffusion and surface tension.

Production and sources of heat; the idea of temperature and quantity of heat; effects of heat on matter; transference of heat. Relation between heat and work as illustrated in the steam engine and the internal combustion engine. Domestic heating and ventilation.

Production and propagation of sound; pitch, loudness and quality.

Production and propagation of light; reflection, refraction and dispersion; colour. The eye and simple optical instruments. Domestic lighting.

Elementary ideas of magnetism. The fundamental experiments of electrostatics. Effects of the electric current. Ohm's law. Current induction, with the outlines of its application in the dynamo. Practical applications of electricity in domestic lighting and in the transmission and transformation of energy.

The chemistry of air and water and of the elements contained in them. The chemistry of combustion; common forms of fuel; carbon as a reducing agent in metallurgy. The relation of the air and its constituents to the life of plants and animals and to the weathering of rocks. The general laws of chemical combinations illustrated by a few common substances (e.g., chalk, sulphur, salt and common soda and bases); explanation of these laws by the atomic theory.

The distinction between living and non-living things; the distinction between typical plants and typical animals. The life of a plant; importance of plants in building up food and fuel. Fundamental principles of agriculture. Simple cases of fermentation and enzyme action. Simple physiology and hygiene.

The solar system; stars and nebulæ. General structure of the earth's crust; igneous and sedimentary rocks; agents of denudation and deposition; fossils and their significance.

Some choice of questions will be given. A laboratory test may be included in the subject matter of the above syllabus, but due notice will be given of its introduction.

Intermediate Mathematics.

(Marks 2,000.)

Includes Elementary Mathematics together with :—

Geometry.—Elementary ideas in solid geometry treated informally (angle between planes, angle between line and plane, great and small circles of sphere, mensuration).

Algebra.—Solution of two simultaneous equations, one linear and one quadratic; easy questions in variation; the meaning and simplest properties of negative and fractional indices; use of logarithmic notation; arithmetic progression, finite geometric progression; rate of change of a function and gradient of a graph; practical application of gradients and of areas of graphs.

Trigonometry.—Solution of plane triangles; graphs of trigonometrical functions; use of four-figure tables; formulæ for trigonometrical ratios of the sum and difference of two angles.

Statics and Dynamics.—The lever, the inclined plane, the pulley and other simple machines; the composition and resolution of forces in one plane; moments; simple graphical methods; friction; simple cases of equilibrium; properties of the centre of gravity; work; velocity ratio, mechanical advantage, and efficiency of a machine.

The composition and resolution of velocities and accelerations in one plane; rectilinear motion under uniform acceleration; Newton's laws of motion; the conservation of linear momentum; work and energy; the time of flight, greatest height, and horizontal range of a projectile.

Proofs of the parallelogram and triangle of forces, and of the principle of moments will not be asked for.

In the absence of special instructions that a question is to be answered by a particular method, candidates are at liberty to choose their method from any branch of mathematics.

British Imperial History.

The age of discovery.
Trade and Settlement.
Foreign wars, their causes and the additions to the Empire resulting from them.
The constitutions of the Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates
The general expansion of the Empire from the beginning of the 17th century to 1914.

"The British Empire" by Sir Charles Lucas is recommended for study by candidates taking this subject

The Cambridge Geometry Schedule.

The order in which the theorems are stated is not imposed as the sequence of their treatment.

[Section I (Practical Geometry).]

1. Bisection of angles and of straight lines.
2. Construction of perpendiculars to straight lines.
3. Construction of an angle equal to a given angle.
4. Construction of parallels to a given straight line.
5. Simple cases of the construction from sufficient data of triangles and quadrilaterals.
6. Division of straight lines into a given number of equal parts.
7. Construction of a triangle equal in area to a given polygon.
8. Construction of tangents to a circle, and of common tangents to two circles.
9. Simple cases of the construction of circles from sufficient data.

[Section II (Practical Geometry).]

10. Division of straight lines into parts in any given proportions.
11. Construction of a fourth proportional to three given straight lines and a mean proportional to two given straight lines
12. Construction of regular figures of 3, 4, 6 or 8 sides in or about a given circle.
13. Construction of a square equal in area to a given polygon.

[Section III.]

ANGLES AT A POINT.

*14. If a straight line stands on another straight line, the sum of the two angles so formed is equal to two right angles, and the converse.

*15. If two straight lines intersect, the vertically opposite angles are equal.

PARALLEL STRAIGHT LINES.

*16. When a straight line cuts two other straight lines, if
(i) a pair of alternate angles are equal, or
(ii) a pair of corresponding angles are equal, or
(iii) a pair of interior angles on the same side of the cutting line are together equal to two right angles, then the two straight lines are parallel; and the converse.

*17. Straight lines which are parallel to the same straight line are parallel to one another.

Triangle and Rectilinear Figures.

18. The sum of the angles of a triangle is equal to two right angles.

19. If the sides of a convex polygon are produced in order, the sum of the angles so formed is equal to four right angles.

*20. If two triangles have two sides of the one equal to two sides of the other, each to each, and also the angles contained by those sides equal, the triangles are congruent.

*21. If two triangles have two angles of the one equal to two angles of the other, each to each, and also one side of the one equal to the corresponding side of the other, the triangles are congruent.

*22. If two sides of a triangle are equal, the angles opposite to these sides are equal; and the converse.

*23. If two triangles have the three sides of the one equal to the three sides of the other, each to each, the triangles are congruent.

24. If two right-angled triangles have their hypotenuses equal, and one side of the one equal to one side of the other, the triangles are congruent.

25. If two sides of a triangle are unequal the greater side has the greater angle opposite to it; and the converse.

26. Of all the straight lines that can be drawn to a given straight line from a given point outside it, the perpendicular is the shortest.

27. The opposite sides and angles of a parallelogram are equal, each diagonal bisects the parallelogram, and the diagonals bisect one another.

28. If there are three or more parallel straight lines, and the intercepts made by these on any straight line that cuts them are equal, then the corresponding intercepts on any other straight line that cuts them are also equal.

Areas.

29. Parallelograms on the same or equal bases and of the same altitude are equal in area.

30. Triangles on the same or equal bases and of the same altitude are equal in area.

31. Equal triangles on the same or equal bases are of the same altitude.

32. Illustrations and explanations of the geometrical theorems corresponding to the following algebraical identities:—

$$(a+b)^2=a^2+2ab+b^2,$$
$$(a-b)^2=a^2-2ab+b^2,$$
$$a^2-b^2=(a+b)(a-b).$$

33. The square on a side of a triangle is greater than, equal to, or less than the sum of the squares on the other two sides, according as the angle contained by those sides is obtuse, right, or acute. The difference in the cases of inequality is twice the rectangle contained by one of the two sides and the projection on it of the other.

Loci.

34. The locus of a point which is equidistant from two fixed points is the perpendicular bisector of the straight line joining the two fixed points.

35. The locus of a point which is equidistant from two intersecting straight lines consists of the pair of straight lines which bisect the angles between the two given lines.

The Circle.

36. A straight line, drawn from the centre of a circle to bisect a chord which is not a diameter, is at right angles to the chord; conversely, the perpendicular to a chord from the centre bisects the chord.

*37. There is one circle, and one only, which passes through three given points not in a straight line.

*38. In equal circles (or, in the same circle) (i) if two arcs subtend equal angles at the centres, they are equal; (ii) conversely, if two arcs are equal, they subtend equal angles at the centres.

*39. In equal circles (or, in the same circle) (i) if two chords are equal they cut off equal arcs; (ii) conversely, if two arcs are equal, the chords of the arcs are equal.

40. Equal chords of a circle are equidistant from the centres, and the converse.

[Section IV.]

41. The tangent at any point of a circle and the radius through the point are perpendicular to one another.

42. If two circles touch, the point of contact lies on the straight line through the centres.

43. The angle which an arc of a circle subtends at the centre is double that which it subtends at any point on the remaining part of the circumference.

44. Angles in the same segment of a circle are equal; and if the line joining two points subtends equal angles at two other points on the same side of it, the four points lie in a circle.

45. The angle in a semi-circle is a right angle; the angle in a segment greater than a semi-circle is less than a right angle; and the angle in a segment less than a semi-circle is greater than a right angle.

46. The opposite angles of any quadrilateral inscribed in a circle are supplementary; and the converse.

47. If a straight line touch a circle, and from the point of contact a chord be drawn, the angles which this chord makes with the tangent are equal to the angles in the alternate segments.

48. If two chords of a circle intersect either inside or outside the circle, the rectangle contained by the parts of the one is equal to the rectangle contained by the parts of the other.

[Section V.]

PROPORTION. SIMILAR TRIANGLES.

49. If a straight line is drawn parallel to one side of a triangle the other two sides are divided proportionally; and the converse.

50. If two triangles are equiangular, their corresponding sides are proportional; and the converse.

51. If two triangles have one angle of the one equal to one angle of the other and the sides about these equal angles proportional, the triangles are similar.

52. The internal bisector of an angle of a triangle divides the opposite side internally in the ratio of the sides containing the angle, and likewise the exterior bisector externally.

53. The ratio of the areas of similar triangles is equal to the ratio of the squares on corresponding sides.

MADRAS GOVERNOR'S CAMP,
14th July 1923.

No. 4.—His Excellency the Viceroy is expected to arrive in Madras about the 8th December 1923 and to remain there until the 12th idem. It is requested that any public body which may desire to present His Excellency with an address on the occasion of his visit will send a draft of the address to the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor so as to reach him not later than 30th August in order that the orders of His Excellency the Viceroy may be taken as to its acceptance.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, OOTACAMUND,
20th July 1923.

ESTABLISHMENTS.

Simla, the 10*th July* 1923

No. F.-137-23.—The provisional regulations for the Indian Civil Service competitive examination to be held in India in 1923, which were published with the Home Department notification No. F.-137-23-Estb., dated the 5th June 1923, ceased to be provisional and came into operation on the 29th June 1923.

No. 252.—The following resolution of the Government of India is republished :—

FINANCE DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 5*th July* 1923.

No. 1533-Ex.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 96-B (2) of the Government of India Act, the Secretary of State for India in Council has been pleased to make the following rules regulating the grant of overseas pay to members of services or to holders of posts for which he has sanctioned such pay.

2. The Secretary of State in Council has decided that these rules shall have effect from the 3rd January 1921, and that the principles laid down in the rules shall be applied retrospectively from the dates on which overseas pay came into force for the various services or posts concerned.

The object of the grant of retrospective effect is to place the grant of overseas pay on a uniform basis from its inception. An officer not entitled to overseas pay under these rules will not, however, be required to refund any amounts which he may have drawn in good faith.

6. It will be observed that under the rules an officer who has been promoted to an Imperial Service from a provincial or subordinate service or from an outside post and is of non-Asiatic domicile is entitled, subject to the proviso to rule 1 (a), to overseas pay from the date on which he became a member of the service. It has been decided that an officer who is admitted to an Imperial Service by promotion should become a member of that service in all respects and that there is no valid reason why he should be treated differently, in respect of overseas pay, from members of his service recruited from other sources. This decision will not, however, supersede that embodied in clause (3) of the Home Department Resolution No. 1260, dated 24th June 1920, because Provincial Civil Service officers on appointment to hold listed Indian Civil Service posts do not become members of the Indian Civil Service; they remain members of the Provincial Civil Service and it is considered that the pay fixed for them is a fair remuneration independently of overseas pay.

OVERSEAS PAY.

1. Overseas pay at the rate or rates sanctioned for a particular service or post may be drawn by the following classes of officers serving in such service or holding such post, namely:—

(a) any officer having at the date of his appointment to such service or post his domicile elsewhere than in Asia:

Provided that no such officer shall be entitled to this concession who, prior to such appointment, has for the purpose of his appointment to any office under the Government or of the conferment upon him by the Government of any scholarships, emoluments or other privilege, claimed or been deemed to be a native of India;

(d) any officer having at the date of his appointment his domicile in Asia, to whom this concession has been extended by any general or special order of the Secretary of State in Council.

2. For the purposes of these rules, the domicile of a person shall be determined in accordance with the provisions set out in the schedule to these rules:

Provided that a person who was born and has been educated exclusively in Asia, and has not resided out of Asia for a total period exceeding six months, shall be deemed to have his domicile in Asia.

3. No officer who alters his appointment to a service or post acquires a new domicile shall thereby lose his right to or become entitled to overseas pay.

4. If any question arises as to the domicile of any officer at the time of his appointment, the decision thereon of the Secretary of State in Council, in the case of persons appointed by him, of the Governor-General in Council in the case of persons appointed by him, or of the local Government in the case of persons appointed by them, shall be final.

THE SCHEDULE.

Provisions for the determination of domicile.

1. A person can have only one domicile.

2. The domicile of origin of every person of legitimate birth is in the country in which at the time of his birth his father was domiciled, or, if he was a posthumous child, in the country in which his father was domiciled at the time of the father's death.

3. The domicile of origin of an illegitimate child is in the country in which at the time of his birth his mother was domiciled.

4. The domicile of origin prevails until a new domicile has been acquired, and a new domicile continues until the former domicile has been resumed or another has been acquired.

5. (1) A person acquires a new domicile by taking up his fixed habitation in a country which is not that of his domicile of origin.

(2) Any person may, if the law of any country so provides, and subject to any such provisions, acquire a domicile in that country by making, in accordance with the said provisions, a declaration of his desire to acquire such domicile.

Explanation 1.—A person is not to be considered as having taken his fixed habitation in a country merely by reason of his residing there in His Majesty's civil or military service or in the exercise of any profession or calling.

Explanation 2.—A person does not acquire a new domicile in any country merely by reason of residing as part of the family or as a servant of any ambassador, consul, or other representative of the Government of another country.

6. The domicile of a minor follows the domicile of the parent from whom he derives his domicile of origin:

Provided that the domicile of a minor does not change with that of his parent if the minor is married or holds any office or employment in the service of His Majesty or has set up with the consent of the parent an any distinct business.

7. After marriage a woman acquires the domicile of her husband if she had not the same domicile before and her domicile during the marriage follows the domicile of her husband:

Provided that in the husband and wife are separated by the order of a competent court or if the husband is undergoing a sentence of transportation, the wife becomes capable of acquiring an independent domicile.

8. Save as otherwise provided above a person cannot during minority acquire a new domicile.

9. An insane person cannot acquire a new domicile in any other way than by his domicile following the domicile of another person.

Fort St. George, July 19, 1923 (G.O. Mis. No. 650, Finance).

No. 156.—The Secretary of State in Council has approved the following amendments to Fundamental Rule 26, published with G.O. No. 914, Finance, dated 6th November 1922:—

(i) For the existing clause (c) of rule 26, substitute the following:—

"(c) If a Government servant while officiating in a post or holding a temporary post on a time-scale of pay, is appointed to officiate in a higher post or to hold a higher temporary post, his officiating or temporary service in the higher post shall, if he is re-appointed to the lower post, count for increments in the time-scale applicable to such lower post."

(ii) Existing clauses (c) and (d)—Renumber these as clauses (d) and (e).

2. The above alterations have effect from 1st January 1922.

Fort St George, July 24, 1923.

No. 157.—The following telegram, dated the 20th July 1923, from the Controller of the Currency, Calcutta, to the Accountant-General, Madras, is published for information:—

"Rate of exchange applicable to contributions to I.O.S., etc., funds during August 1923 same as July 1923, i.e., sixteen pence per rupee. Percentage admissible as Exchange Compensation Allowance on salary paid during same month rupees six annas four per hundred rupees subject to maximum rupees one hundred and thirty-eight, annas fourteen only (Rs. 138-14-0)."

Fort St. George, July 11, 1923 [G.O. No. 246, Finance (Pension)].

No. 158.—The attention of all heads of departments is drawn to G.O. No. 38, dated 6th March 1919, on the subject of delays in the disposal of applications for pension, a matter which is apt to inflict extreme hardship upon deserving Government officers on their retirement.

2. The enquiry which resulted in the issue of the order in question was commenced in consequence of certain instances of these hardships having been brought to the notice of Government. It was extended to the procedure followed in all departments and resulted in a demonstration that the delays were due not to any defect in the rules, but to the total failure in certain departments to see that these rules were carried into effect, and orders were issued accordingly.

3. The Government regret to find that these orders have failed in their effect, that the Accountant-General was compelled to issue a further circular on the subject on the 20th December 1921 and that that again has not led to any improvement in the situation.

4. The Government are therefore compelled to call the attention of the heads of departments to the matter. To ensure that proper action shall be taken to ensure compliance with the rules, heads of departments will be requested personally to scrutinize the instructions issued on the receipt of G.O. No. 38, dated 6th March 1919, and such other instructions as have been issued from their departments either prior or subsequent to that order, if they find these inadequate, to make them complete; and finally to submit for the information of Government an abstract of all the orders which are in force in their departments. They are required to give particular attention to the question of the scrutiny and periodical inspection of service books, and to take steps to ensure that this scrutiny is fully and adequately carried out. They are further required to punish suitably officers who fail to attend to their duties in this connexion, not excepting those who sign the certificate upon the monthly pay bill of their offices that changes have been carried out in the service book before the salary bill is signed when as a matter of fact no such changes have been made.

5. The fact that these delays are exceedingly common in some departments and almost unknown in others, which have equally large establishments to deal with, is a clear indication that what is required is not a change in the rules, but the institution by heads of departments of a satisfactory organization for carrying them out. The Accountant-General will be requested to furnish on the 1st of January each year a statement by departments of cases in which there have been undue delays and the Government will look to the heads of departments in which delays are most common to take action to secure by inspection or otherwise that these statements are reduced to a minimum.

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIES AND LABOUR.

MINES REGULATIONS.

Simla, the 30th June 1923.

No. M.-665.—The following letter from the Government of India to local Governments and Administrations is published for general information :—

From A. H. LEY, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Secretary to the Government of India, to all Local Governments and Administrations, No. M.-665, dated Simla, the 22nd June 1923.

[Subject.—Employment of women in mines and introduction of a system of shifts.]

I am directed to address you with regard to two important questions in connection with the regulation of mines, namely, the employment of women in mines and the introduction of a system of working by shifts.

2. The employment of women in mines.—Section 29, sub-section (2) (b) of the Indian Mines Act, 1901, enables the Governor General in Council or the Local Government to make rules prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment of women below ground or on particular kinds of labour where such employment is attended by danger to the life, safety or health of such women. In the twenty two years since the Act was passed no rules appear to have been made under this sub-section. It will be observed that rules could be made only if it could be proved in each case that the employment was attended by danger to life, safety or health and not because of objections based on general, social or hygienic considerations. When framing the Bill which has since become Act IV of 1923 and will come into force on the 1st July 1924, the Government of India considered carefully a proposal to prohibit forthwith the employment of women in mines by statute. They came to the conclusion that it would be inexpedient to make any such provision immediately effective in view of the fact that women form more than a third of the mining labour of the country and the immediate prohibition of their employment would very seriously disorganize a very important key industry. In the Bill introduced in the Legislative Assembly in September 1922, two provisions were inserted bearing on this point. In the first place it was proposed to prohibit the presence of all children below ground in a mine. This provision has since become law (section 26 of the Act of 1923), and will, it is anticipated, automatically involve the exclusion from mines of some proportion of the women who would otherwise work below ground. Secondly, in clause 30 (b) of the Bill it was proposed to give the Local Government power to prohibit, restrict or regulate the presence or employment in mines of women either above or below ground, or on particular kinds of labour. It will be noticed that this was a very much wider authority than either the Government of India or Local Governments possess under the Act of 1901. After the Bill was introduced there was considerable discussion on the subject in the press and elsewhere. The Joint Committee of the Indian Legislature to which the Bill was referred devoted particular attention to this point. In their report they made the following observations on the subject :—

"Employment of women.—The present law regarding the employment of women is contained in section 29 (2) (b) of Act VIII of 1901. This is a provision which enables rules to be made prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment of women either below ground or on particular kinds of labour where the employment is attended by danger. The rule-making power vests in the Governor-General in Council or the Local Government. The Bill referred to us in clause 30 (b) enables a Local Government, subject to control, to make rules prohibiting, restricting or regulating the presence or employment in mines of women, either above or below ground or on particular kinds of labour. It is, we think, generally realized that the absolute prohibition of the employment of women below ground in coal mines is a mere matter of time. It cannot be introduced at once because time must be given to employers to replace the labour of the 40,000 women who are at present working in mines. Some of us pressed for the inclusion of a statutory prohibition in the Bill with a provision that it should not come into force for five years after the passing of the Bill. We think, however, that this would involve such a radical alteration in the Bill that re-circulation would be essential, and as we are reluctant to delay its passage, we think it desirable to attempt to effect a compromise. We have, in the first place, transferred the provision relating to the employment of women from clause 30 to clause 29 of the Bill, so that the power of control may vest in the Governor-General in Council. We have further re-drafted the provision so as to follow more closely the wording of the present law. We desire, however, to place on record a recommendation that the question of the employment of women below ground in mines should be taken up at a very early date with Local Governments with a view to prohibiting such employment either in all mines or in particular classes of mines at the end of a specified period, which we think should be about five years."

In accordance with the recommendation of the Joint Committee, section 22 (f) of the Act of 1923 empowers the Governor-General in Council "to make regulations . . . . for prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment in mines or in any class of mines of women either below ground or on particular kinds of labour which are attended by danger to the life, safety or health of such women."

I am to invite attention to the phraseology of the clause. The power conferred on the Government of India is not so wide as was proposed for Local Governments in the Bill as originally introduced, for, in the case of labour, other than below ground, the Government of India must be satisfied, as to the Act of 1901, that the labour of the women concerned is attended by danger to their life, safety or health.

3. In accordance with the suggestion made in the report of the Joint Committee and quoted above, I am to ask for the views of the Local Government on the question of framing regulations under clause (f) of section 22 of Act IV of 1923.

4. The question of the prohibition of the employment of women in mines was raised by the Secretary of State for India as long ago as 1910, when Lord Crewe forwarded to the Government of India the proceedings of the Berlin Conference and suggested that Government should consider the advisability of legislating for the regulation of the employment of women in mines. The Government of India took the question up along with the general proposals for the regulation of mines to insure the health and safety of the workers. The Bill framed in 1899, for the inspection and regulation of mines, contained a clause empowering an Inspector of Mines to prohibit the employment of women when such employment was dangerous, or unsuited, to female labour; and another clause empowering the Governor-General in Council, and the Local Government, to make rules prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment of women below ground or on particular kinds of labour. When the Bill was submitted to the Secretary of State for his approval, the Secretary of State noted that, while the Bill provided for the supervision and control of female labour, it did not prohibit the employment of women altogether; he warned the Government of India that, as the mining industry developed, it would become increasingly difficult to prohibit the employment of women, and suggested that the question of further safeguarding such employment should be carefully considered in Committee. When the Bill was circulated, the provision regulating the employment of women aroused considerable criticism, and expression was given to the fear that if steps were taken to prevent their female relatives from going below ground with the male workers, the latter would themselves refuse to work in the mines. It was argued that the conditions of employment in Indian mines were fundamentally different from those in western countries; that Indian mine labour worked in family gangs, the women assisting their relatives and helping to avoid their marriage and that, when proper precautions were taken to secure ventilation and to make the workings healthy, conditions in the mines were not unpleasant or prejudical to health. When the Bill was finally considered in the legislature the provisions relating to the employment of women were altered into the form in which they appear in the Act of 1901.

5. Since that time, mining conditions have undergone a considerable change, Indian mining is no longer in its infancy. The mines are deeper, and the risk of danger is accentuated. There is a steadily increasing body of public opinion, which strongly deprecates the continued employment of women in mines. The Government of India accept the view of the Joint Committee of the Indian Legislature that the time has now come to consider seriously the prohibition of employment of women underground, particularly in coal mines, in which probably the conditions of work are hardest and open to most objection. As stated above, however, more than a third of the total mining community are women, and although manual labour in mines is to some extent being supplanted by machine cutters, it is an undoubted fact that the sudden removal of female labour from underground work in mines would seriously dislocate the industry, and possibly compel a number of mines to close down. The only way of minimising such a dislocation would be by giving the mine-managers sufficient notice of the intentions of Government, to enable them to secure and train the new labour which they will require, when the underground employment of women is prohibited.

6. I am now directed to ask that the Government of India may be favoured with the views of the Local Government on the general proposition that the employment of women in mines, or in particular classes of mines, should be prohibited at some specified time, e.g., five years after the new Mines Act comes into force. I am in particular to enquire whether the Local Government would make the prohibition a general one, or applicable only to certain classes of mines, such as coal mines, and whether the period of grace suggested before the prohibition comes into effect, viz., five years, is suitable. The Government of India are provisionally of opinion that the prohibition should apply only to workings which raised beneath the superficial ground, there would appear to be no greater objection to the employment of women above ground or in open quarries or shallow pits than to their employment on ordinary earth-work. But on this point too the Government of India would be glad of the views of the Local Government.

7. The introduction of a system of shifts in coal mines.—In the course of the discussions in the Indian Legislature on the clause enacted as section 28 of the new Indian Mines Act, which prescribes weekly limits of work for mine labourers generally, it was contended in certain quarters that the prescription of a weekly limit did not go far enough; it was urged that in the coalfields miners worked sometimes for 18 hours a day, a practice which the pre-cription of a weekly limit would not stop. It was recognized, however, that under present conditions of mine labour in the coalfield it was impracticable to insist on a daily limit of hours, although it might be possible, if due warning were given to the mine owners, to introduce at some later date a system of shifts, which would automatically restrict the hours which an individual labourer could work in a single day. I am to point here that the Act of 1923 does not authorise the enforcement of a system of shifts and if any such system is to be made compulsory, fresh legislation will be necessary.

8. From the point of view of the proper and economic working of the collieries there is little doubt that the introduction of a system of shifts would be an advantage. Instead of relying as at present on a fluctuating labour supply, which works for perhaps three days and absents itself for the remainder of the week, the mine-manager would be assured of a constant supply of regular labour. This argument was urged by Mr. Travers Ross in 1919 after a careful examination of mining methods in the Indian coalfields; and the principle of a shift system appears generally to have commended itself to the Coalfields Committee in 1920, though that Committee were of opinion that in view of the then existing labour conditions it would be premature to enforce such a system by statute. The crux of the difficulty is undoubtedly the effect which the introduction of fixed and limited hours of work would have on the labour population at the mines. Although it is an accepted fact that the restriction of daily working hours to a reasonable limit ordinarily makes for a more contented and efficient labour force, it is certain that in the peculiar conditions of mining labour in the coalfields a statutory restriction of this nature, imposed without due warning, would be unwelcome to the miners and might quite possibly drive a number of them away to other employment, where they would be free of statutory interference. If such was the case, the proposed legislation, while doing little good to the labourers themselves, would seriously affect the coal industry and, by curtailing the output of coal, be a source of grave embarrassment to other industries which depend on coal for their source of power.

9. The Government of India are, however, provisionally of opinion that any such dislocation of the labour supply could be minimised by giving the industry ample warning that a compulsory shift system would be introduced in coal mines on a fixed date some years hence. They are inclined to the view that, if it appears to them probable, the change in the methods of work in the coal mines which the introduction of a system of shifts would involve would be to the ultimate advantage at once of the mine-owners and of the labourers themselves, the introduction of this change is probably only a matter of time. It might be possible in the first instance to arrange the shifts in such a manner as to interfere as little as possible with existing mining practice. For instance, it has been suggested that, to commence with, the day might be divided into two shifts of twelve hours each (6 a.m. to 6 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 6 a.m.). The Government of India are inclined to the view that, as the labourers become used to the stricter regulation of hours which a shift system postulates, the time will come when a shorter working day with definite rest intervals will have to be imposed.

10. I am to ask for the views of the Local Government on this question, both generally and with particular regard to the following points:—

(a) whether the introduction of a compulsory system of shifts is practicable and advisable;

(b) what period of grace should be given before any legislation enforcing such a system should be imposed;

(c) what limit should be placed on the working day, and what particular system of shifts should be enforced;

(d) whether such legislation should apply to any mines other than coal mines;

(e) if applied only to coal mines, whether it should be enforced in all coalfields without exception. Attention is in this connection invited to paragraph 47 of the Report of the Coalfields Committee. The Government of India believe that the views of that Committee that any such system, if adopted at all, should be adopted universally, are likely to meet with general approval.

11. The Local Government will realise that this question of the introduction of a system of shifts is on a different footing from the question of prohibiting the employment of women, since the latter can be effected by regulations made under the Act of 1923, while the former would require legislation. In these circumstances, the Local Government may find it convenient to deal with the two questions independently, making each the subject of a separate reply.

Fort St. George, May 23, 1923 (G.O. No. 832, P.H.).

No. 645.—The instructions for the working of vaccination in non-municipal areas, submitted by the Director of Public Health, are approved as revised and printed in the annexure to this order.

ANNEXURE.

Instructions for the working of vaccination in non-municipal areas.—

Duties of Vaccinators and District Health Inspectors

1. Every District Health Inspector should be provided with a list showing the name and population of all the villages (and hamlets) in his range. The list should be prepared in Form A and maintained according to the instructions given in the foot-note thereto. This list will be the District Health Inspector's village inspection register and a record of his and his vaccinators' work.

2. Every District Health Inspector should be provided with an accurate and detailed map of his range. Likewise each vaccinator should also be provided with a map showing the range within which he has to work. Each range should be divided into a number of circles each of which should include such an area and population as can be completed by the vaccinators in not more than one month. Each circle should be further divided into as many groups as there are vaccinators, one group being allotted to each vaccinator. The above details should all be clearly indicated on the District Health Inspector's map, preferably in different colours.

3. The District Health Inspector should then determine the order in which the circles and groups should be taken up for vaccination, seasonal and other conditions being duly considered. On this basis a fixed programme should be prepared for the whole year showing—

(a) the villages in the circles and groups,
(b) the dates of visits by the vaccinators, and
(c) the places to which each of the four monthly supplies of lymph is to be sent.

These places should have good road or railway and postal communications. A copy of this programme shall be submitted for approval to the District Health Officer at least one month before the commencement of the year. A copy of the approved programme shall then be sent to the District Health Officer, the President, District Board, the Presidents of the Taluk Boards and the Director of the King Institute. Ordinarily every village and hamlet in the range should be visited by the vaccinators not less than once a year; where the range is compact, it should be possible to arrange for two visits in the year. The programme shall not be departed from except with the permission of the District Health Officer who will send timely notification to the Director of the King Institute of any unavoidable change, such as for example epidemic outbreak of smallpox.

4. All the vaccinators of a range should ordinarily work in one circle at the same time. They should assemble at the place previously arranged in the fixed programme for the receipt of lymph; and on its receipt they should proceed to vaccinate from one end of the group area to the other until the whole area is completed.

5. The headquarters of the vaccinators of a range will be the same as that of the District Health Inspector. They may return to headquarters after exhausting the supply of lymph, but only on condition that they are at the appointed places on the due date in order to take delivery of the next supply of lymph on its arrival at the Post Office.

6. Vaccinators and District Health Inspectors shall note carefully the directions for using vaccine lymph contained in Appendix I to these instructions. Any violation of these directions will entail serious notice.

7. The District Health Inspector and the vaccinators shall give at least one week's notice (in Form B) to the village headmen or Presidents of Union Boards as the case may be and in respect of villages where panchayats have been constituted, to the Presidents of the Panchayats also of the date of their intended visits and copies of the notices shall also be sent to the Tahsildars or Deputy Tahsildars concerned for information. The vaccination staff should not fail to visit villages on the appointed dates. If for any reason they are unable to visit on these dates, they shall give information of the fact to the village headmen or Presidents of Union Boards as the case may be and to the Presidents of the Panchayats not less than 24 hours previously.

8. Vaccination and the inspection of vaccinated cases must be performed in the village itself and parents or guardians of children shall not be required to go to any other village for the above purpose. When a main village has attached to it any hamlets situated at a distance of one mile or more, or when a hamlet is mainly occupied by Muhammadans or any other community whose women do not appear in public, vaccination and inspection shall be performed in suitable centres selected in the hamlets themselves. No vaccination or inspection should ordinarily be done at private residences except as provided in paragraph 32 infra.

9. The vaccinator shall take with him sufficient lymph for the vaccination of all the available unprotected children in the village and shall vaccinate them forthwith. He shall enter the date of vaccination against the name of each vaccinated child in column 9 of the village unprotected register (Form C). Should he find any child unfit for vaccination on account of illness or any other cause, he shall postpone the vaccination of such child and enter the word 'postponed' in column 13 with the reason for such postponement. The certificate of the village headman or the President of the Union Board or of the Village Panchayat in writing as to the state of the health of a child may ordinarily be accepted as sufficient evidence of the necessity for postponement of vaccination, but the vaccinator should go to the parent's house in order to verify the assertion. He shall however not require the child to be produced.

10. The vaccinator shall, after the vaccination of the assembled children, make inquiries in the village in order to check the accuracy of birth and death and unprotected registers, and all unrecorded cases discovered during the inspection shall be posted in the registers. All unprotected children above six months discovered during the inspection shall be vaccinated forthwith.

11. In every village visited, the vaccinator is also expected to vaccinate and re-vaccinate a number of adults, and 10 per cent of his prescribed minimum may be made up of re-vaccinations.

12. The reserve vaccinators, under the supervision of the District Health Inspector, shall attend to emergency cases, shall be used to supplement the work of the ordinary vaccination staff for instance, in smallpox infected areas. They may also be deputed for vaccination and re-vaccination of school children, factory and workshop employees and estate coolies, etc., and for vaccination in places which have not been visited by the permanent staff, or where vaccination is backward.

13. A vaccinator shall not inspect the result of his own work. Immediately after exhausting each supply of lymph, he shall submit to the District Health Inspector—

(b) a report in Form E.

14. On receipt of the nominal registers the District Health Inspector shall proceed to inspect the vaccinators' work.

15. He shall inspect all cases before the close of the month succeeding their vaccination so that his monthly return may be despatched by the prescribed date. If however the cases vaccinated by the reserve vaccinators cannot be inspected in the prescribed period without interfering with the inspection of the permanent vaccinators' work, the District Health Inspector may with the previous approval of the District Health Officer authorize the reserve vaccinators to verify the cases themselves. But, he shall inspect such cases when he next visits those places.

16. The District Health Inspector shall during inspection fill in the necessary columns of the unprotected register (Form C). He shall see that this register is in all cases correctly maintained. He shall submit his monthly return (Form F) to the District Health Officer and the Presidents of Taluk Boards before the end of the month succeeding that in which the cases were vaccinated.

17. He shall submit a weekly diary of his work (in Form G) to the President, District Board, through the District Health Officer and the President, Taluk Board. The President, District Board, will return the diary after perusal to the District Health Officer for record in his office. The District Health Officer shall submit to the Director of Public Health two consolidated weekly statements (Forms H and H-1) showing the work done during each week by the District Health Inspectors under his charge.

18. The District Health Inspector shall send his pay bills, travelling allowance and contingent bills to the District Health Officer who shall be the countersigning officer.

19. District Health Inspectors shall be on tour at least 20 days in each month. The District Health Officer if he finds that on account of any laxity or neglect, a District Health Inspector's work has fallen into arrears, may make such deductions in his travelling allowance as may be considered reasonable.

20. It is left to District Boards to prescribe a minimum of work for each vaccinator. This should ordinarily be between 250 and 500 cases per measem. Vaccinators should not be rewarded for performing more than the minimum number of operations prescribed, but the Presidents of Taluk Boards may reduce the travelling allowance of a vaccinator who fails to reach his minimum and may also order the recovery of cost of any lymph which has been wasted.

21. All returns submitted by vaccinators and District Health Inspectors should be promptly passed on to their final destination.

22. The attention of all vaccinators and District Health Inspectors is drawn to Rule 11 in G.O. No. 1257, P.H., dated 9th August 1922:—

"No fee or remuneration shall be accepted by a vaccinator in the employ of a Local Board for any vaccination performed or certificate given under these rules. Where, however, a parent or guardian desires to have his child vaccinated and the result of the operation inspected at his own residence, the President or any person duly authorized by him in that behalf may, upon application by such person and upon payment of such fee as the Local Board may have prescribed, direct a vaccinator to perform the vaccination and cause the result of the operation to be ascertained as hereinbefore provided at the residence of such person."

23. Vaccinators or District Health Inspectors who have any complaints against village headmen shall not enter them in the village registers but shall make a separate report to the authorities concerned.

Duties of village officers

24. A register of unprotected children (Form C) shall be maintained for each village a fresh register being opened every year. The Revenue Department should take particular care to see that every village headman is supplied with sufficient forms before the beginning of each year. The register shall be maintained by Presidents of Union Boards in union villages and by village headmen in other villages.

25. As the correctness of the register of unprotected children depends on the proper maintenance of the birth and death registers (Forms I, I-1, J and J-1), the instructions contained in the Manual of Village Accounts for birth and death registration in areas where registration is not compulsory and the rules under Act III of 1899 for registration in compulsory areas should be carefully observed.

26. In opening the register of unprotected children, the names of all the children under 12 years, in the case of male children, and 10 years in the case of female children, who have not been vaccinated, or have been unsuccessfully vaccinated, or who have not had smallpox, should be entered first. Following these entries, the names of the children born in the village during the year should be entered simultaneously with their registration in the birth register. In the case of union villages where registration of births and deaths is attended to by the village headmen, the latter shall submit to the Presidents of Union Boards before the 5th of every month an extract of births registered during the previous month. In respect of villages where panchayats have been constituted, the village headman shall submit the extract to the Presidents of the Panchayats concerned also.

27. At the beginning of every month inquiries shall be made regarding unprotected children born in other villages who have taken up their residence in the village and the names of all such children shall be entered in that register.

28. When a fresh register is opened all the children shown as unprotected in the previous register shall first be brought forward, subsequent entries being made as required in paragraph 26 above.

29. Columns 1 to 8 in the register shall be filled in by the village headman or President of the Union Board as the case may be, column 9 by the vaccinator, and columns 10, 11 and 12 by the District Health Inspector. Column 13 is intended for the remarks of the vaccinator in cases where vaccination has been postponed, and also for the remarks of inspecting officers.

30. When a child dies or leaves the village the fact shall be noted by the village headman or the President of the Union Board as the case may be in column 13 of the register.

31. The village headman or the President of the Union Board as the case may be shall see that the unprotected register is complete and the name of every unprotected child liable for vaccination is entered therein, prior to the date of the vaccinator's visit. The unprotected register shall, in villages where panchayats have been constituted, be placed by the village headman before the panchayat at its monthly meeting and the panchayat shall scrutinise the register carefully and ensure that the name of every unprotected child is entered therein.

32. On the date of the visit of the vaccinator or the District Health Inspector the village headman or the President of the Union Board as the case may be and in villages where panchayats have been constituted, the President of the Panchayat should arrange to be present in the village. Should a good need for his absence arise he shall intimate the fact to the vaccinator or District Health Inspector and hand over the registers, etc., relating to vaccination to the Karnam or other officer with instructions to render the vaccinator or the District Health Inspector all necessary assistance.

33. A week before the date of the vaccinator's visit, the headman or President of the Union Board, as the case may be, shall announce such date in the village by beat of tom-tom and shall affix a list of children liable to vaccination in the village chavadi or other public building within the limits of the village. The notice shall call upon the parent or guardian of every child whose name appears in the list to produce the child at the time and place appointed for vaccination and shall state that, if within an hour of the time notified, the vaccinator has not turned up and started work, the parent or guardian need wait no longer. A notice in similar terms shall be given before each visit of the District Health Inspector. The village headman or President of the Union Board as the case may be shall similarly on receipt of information that the vaccinator's or District Health Inspector's visit is postponed notify the fact by beat of tom-tom.

34. It is essential that the children should be ready at the time of the vaccinator's or District Health Inspector's visits. It is the duty of the village headman or the President of the Union Board as the case may be and in villages where panchayats have been constituted, of the President of the Panchayat also, to see that the parents or guardians take the children specified in the list to the appointed place at the time stated in the notification.

35. The village headman or the President of the Union Board as the case may be shall, under no circumstances, allow the village registers to be taken out of the village except under the orders (in writing) of some competent authority.

Vaccination in compulsory areas.

36. In villages where vaccination is compulsory, when the parent or guardian fails to produce his child for vaccination or inspection at the time and place notified by the village headman or the President of the Union Board as the case may be the vaccinator or the District Health Inspector shall forthwith serve on such parent or guardian or cause to be affixed to his house, a fresh notice (Form K) requiring the child to be produced for vaccination or inspection at the time and place specified in the notice. When the parent or guardian again fails to comply with such notice, or does not show sufficient cause for his failure to do so, the vaccinator or the District Health Inspector shall send a report thereof (Form L) to the Magistrate having jurisdiction over the area after obtaining the sanction of the President, Taluk Board, or of the Union Board in the case of unions. The parent or guardian shall then be dealt with according to the rules issued under Sections 127 and 200 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920.

37. If any child under six months of age is exposed to infection in consequence of its residence in, or within a radius of 150 yards from, a house infected by smallpox, the parent or guardian shall be required in Form M to have the child vaccinated and inspected after vaccination under the rules referred to in paragraph 36 above. In the above circumstances the procedure laid down for the prosecution of parents for failure to produce children above six months of age for vaccination or inspection shall also be adopted in regard to the prosecution of parents of children under six months.

Explanation.—For the purpose of these instructions, the District Medical and Sanitary Officer, The Nilgiris, will be the District Health Officer for that district.

APPENDIX I.

Directions for using vaccine lymph.

1. Supplies of vaccination lymph to vaccinators in the several districts will be made from the King Institute, Guindy, four times a month on the dates noted in the margin against each group of districts. Under this arrangement it will be possible for vaccinators to wait for their second supply and then use up two supplies together. This might not be detected as District Health Inspectors are not always in town with their vaccinators. As there still is a tendency to delay in using the vaccine as promptly as possible, vaccinators should be ordered to submit nominal registers of vaccination immediately after finishing their supply. In all cases of delay there should be a severe penalty as it is very important that all supply of lymph should be used promptly. District Health Officers will be expected to take all steps to ensure that this is being done by the vaccinators in their districts.

1. Nilgiris. Malabar. South Kanara. Coimbatore. Salem.	}	1st, 7th, 17th and 23rd
2. Ganjam Godavari. Kistna Ganjam. Hill Tracts. Vizagapatam.	}	2nd, 8th, 18th and 24th.
3. Trichinopoly. Tanjore. South Arcot. Tinnevelly. Madura.	}	3rd, 9th, 19th and 25th.
4. Kurnool Anantapur. Bellary. Cuddapah. Nellore.	}	4th, 10th, 20th and 26th.
5. North Arcot. Chittoor. Chingleput. Ramnad. Kistna district.	}	5th, 11th, 21st and 27th.
6 Municipalities. Jails. Military.	}	6th, 12th, 22nd and 28th.

2. All indents for vaccine lymph shall be in multiples of 20 doses and ordinarily the issue of lymph from the King Institute will be in tubes containing 20 doses each. In special cases tubes containing 10 doses will also be issued but this smaller tube should not be usually necessary if vaccinators exercise due care.

3. The vaccine is sent out from the King Institute of Preventive Medicine, Guindy, in glass or collapsible tubes.

These tubes are labelled to show —

(a) the number of the calf from which the vaccine was prepared;
(b) the number of cases which can be vaccinated with the contents;
(c) the date of despatch; and
(d) the date beyond which the vaccine must not be used.

This date is fixed as a maximum for inaccessible places but to ensure good results every effort shall be made to use the vaccine expeditiously.

4. Heat quickly destroys the potency of vaccine lymph; it should therefore be kept as cool as possible, night and day.

Vaccinators shall be at the appointed places on the due dates in order to take delivery of their supplies of lymph from the Postal authorities immediately on arrival. The vaccine tubes shall at once be placed in a cooled vaccine-carrier.

The carrier being made of materials (pith and glass) which are bad conductors of heat, gives protection from heat to the vaccine. When vaccinators are on the march additional protection can be given by rolling clean clothing round the carrier.

It must be remembered that, as the carrier is designed to keep heat out, it will, if once allowed to get warm, keep heat in just as efficiently and thus completely defeat the end aimed at.

At night time, therefore, the carriers and their contents should be cooled down as thoroughly as circumstances permit. The carrier should be opened and the tubes of vaccine removed. A little clean water should then be poured into the carrier and the latter hung up still open, in as good a draught of air as possible. The tubes of vaccine should be rolled in a small pad of clean lint or rag and placed in a shallow saucer of water in a good draught of air.

These precautions will be specially effective in hot dry places where the day temperatures are high. The greatest protection from the effects of heat, however, will be obtained by using the vaccine as quickly as possible.

5. The operation.—The operation shall be conducted in a shady place, such as the munsif's shavadi, or in the shade of a thick tree. It is desirable to gather the children in some such places before commencing operations.

The vaccinator shall thoroughly wash his hands in clean water and dry them on a clean towel.

The children's arms shall be washed and dried in the same manner. Anything tight around the arm such as strings or amulets shall be removed before operating.

The lancet shall be sterilised in the flame of the spirit lamp and allowed to cool thoroughly. In the interval between sterilization and vaccination, the blade of the lancet shall not be handled or allowed to come in contact with any object except the lymph and the arm of the person to be vaccinated.

The arm being held firmly the skin shall be scarified with the blade of the lancet at two places. No scarification shall consist of less than four scratches close together, each about three-eighths of an inch long. A blunt lancet will be found to be better than a sharp one.

The scratches should be just deep enough to reach the surface of the true skin. The vaccinator will know when he has reached this depth by seeing the pinkish white appearance of the true skin. A point or two of blood may appear; but this is not necessary.

Having made the scarifications, the cap or cork of the tube should be removed and kept in a clean place so that it may not be contaminated by dust or earth. If the vaccine is contained in a collapsible tube, the latter should be gently pressed from the bottom upward so as to squeeze out as much vaccine lymph as is necessary for one arm (two scarifications). In the case of vaccine contained in glass tubes, a small quantity should be poured into a clean watch glass, the cap or cork being instantly replaced on the tube. The vaccine lymph should then be carried to the arm on the lancet and transferred to the scarified areas. Each scarification should then be opened by stretching the skin with the finger and the thumb and the vaccine lymph rubbed in gently for a few seconds with the flat of the lancet so as to fill each scratch.

The other arm shall then be treated in a similar manner.

6. The operation having been completed, the vaccinated person should be kept under observation in a shady place, until the vaccine is absorbed. The scarifications should on no account be exposed to the sun. Parents should be advised not to apply poultices, cowdung, leaves or such like to the scarified areas.

7. The lancet should now be well cleaned by wiping it on a clean cloth or blotting paper. On no account must sand or earth be used. The cleaning and sterilization of the lancet should be done between each operation.

8. Vaccinators requiring vaccine for an extra number of cases should submit their indents through the District Health Inspector to the Assistant Director, King Institute of Preventive Medicine, Guindy, Saidapet, Madras. These indents should be made on the printed post cards prescribed for such purpose.

Station (Signature)

Date 1923. class Vaccinator,

District.

9. A statement in the annexed form should be sent by the District Health Inspectors to the Assistant Director of the King Institute every month after the cases have been inspected. The necessary forms are supplied by the King Institute.

10. Vaccinators are forbidden to use vaccine beyond the date marked on the tube. This date is calculated so as to give vaccinators five clear days on which to use the vaccine. The observance of this rule must be regarded as imperative. If any vaccine remains unused at the end of the specified time, it should be returned to the Assistant Director, King Institute of Preventive Medicine, by letter post, in the box in which it was sent out. A statement of the reasons for not using the supply should be enclosed.

11. If there is reason to believe that the vaccine is inactive or decomposed, it should at once be returned as above with a brief statement showing why it is sent back. The vaccine thus returned will then be carefully tested at the Institute by the Director and the results will be compared with those obtained by other vaccinators with the same issue of vaccine, in the same or other districts. Where it is evident that carelessness in exposing the vaccine to the sun, to great heat, or in carrying out the operation has occurred, or where vaccinators have deliberately delayed commencing work for several days after receipt of a fresh supply, it will be recommended that they be made to pay the cost of the vaccine to the local bodies concerned at a rate of 6 pies per case.

Fort St. George, July 20, 1923.

No. 646.—The following correspondence is published for information:—

From A. Y. G. CAMPBELL, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Acting Secretary to Government, Local Self-Government Department, to the Agent, South Indian Railway Company, Trichinopoly, No. 4700-2, L. & M., dated Fort St. George, the 20th March 1923.

[Subject.—Pilgrim tax—Levy of.]

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No. A.M. 4442-1/264, dated 10th November 1922, I am directed to inquire whether the following arrangement will be agreeable to you:—

(1) In cases where the tax is levied permanently throughout the year, the amount of the tax will be added to the railway fare and printed on the passengers' tickets, but if in any case the Government do not give at least three months' notice of the levy of the tax or of the abolition of the tax or of a change in the rate at which the tax is to be levied, the cost of replacing any existing stock of tickets or of altering the existing stock of tickets may be recovered from the proceeds of the tax in addition to the percentage which may be deducted under the rules now in force. Three months' notice is suggested with a view to enable the railway company to use up any existing stock of tickets.

(2) Where the tax is levied temporarily, special tax tickets will be printed and supplied by the Railway Company to stations for issue along with ordinary tickets. The cost of these special tax tickets should be defrayed by the railway company. In view of the fact that the railway company receives a higher percentage when the tax is levied temporarily, it appears reasonable that the railway company should bear the cost of the special tax tickets.

2. In view of the fact that the railway company has admittedly made a profit on the whole from the levy of the tax, it does not appear to be necessary to give retrospective effect to the arrangement mentioned in clause (1).

From the Agent, South Indian Railway, No. A.M. 4442-1/278, dated Trichinopoly, the 19th April 1923.

[Pilgrim tax.]

Referring to your letter No. 4700-2, L. & M., dated the 20th March 1923, I have the honour to inform you that I agree to the arrangements proposed therein and shall be glad if the same be given effect to from 1st April 1923.

From P. L. MOORE, Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Acting Secretary to Government, Local Self-Government Department, to the Agent, South Indian Railway, Trichinopoly, No. 1023 Mis., dated Fort St. George, the 20th July 1923.

[Pilgrim tax.]

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. A.M. 4442-1/278, dated 19th April 1923, I am to state that the Government approve of the arrangements in regard to the incidence of the cost of printing tickets in connexion with the levy of pilgrim tax accepted by your administration.

No. 648.—The appended Government Order is communicated to all Taluk and Union Boards :—

APPENDIX.

G.O. No. 880, REVENUE, DATED 6TH JUNE 1923.

The question of the provision of communal grazing grounds was fully discussed in 1918. The Government then came to the conclusion that the policy of reserving waste lands on a large scale as grazing grounds or pasturages was unsuitable to modern conditions and contrary to the best interests of cattle breeding. They do not see sufficient reason for changing the policy then laid down.

E. W. LUSH
Acting Secretary to Government.

ACQUISITION OF LANDS.

Fort St. George, July 24, 1923.

No. 649.—Under section 6 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, the Government hereby declare that the land mentioned below and measuring 13·20 acres, be the same a little more or less, is needed for a public purpose, to wit, for the formation of a road from Perayaram to Sethubhasathram, Tanjore; and, under sections 9 and 7, the Revenue Divisional Officer, Pattukkottai, is appointed to perform the functions of a Collector under the Act and directed to take order for the acquisition of the said land. A plan of the land is kept in the office of the Revenue Divisional Officer, Pattukkottai, and may be inspected at any time during office hours.

UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS.

NOTIFICATION.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES APPEARING FOR THE EXAMINATIONS TO BE HELD IN SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER 1923.

Candidates for University Examinations are required to observe the following instructions very carefully:—

1. Strict silence should be maintained in the examination room.

2. Candidates should take their places in the examination hall at least five minutes before the time fixed for giving out the papers. Candidates presenting themselves more than half an hour after the appointed time will not be admitted to the examination hall. Candidates who are undoubtedly suffering from infectious diseases of any kind will not be admitted.

Candidates should bring with them to the examination hall each day of the examination, their hall tickets for inspection by the Chief Superintendent.

3. Candidates are prohibited from writing upon their hall tickets or question papers. Candidates are also prohibited from writing their names on any part of their answer books, but their register numbers should be written very distinctly on the outer cover of each. Failure to write their register numbers may involve the rejection of answer papers.

4. Candidates are not allowed to exceed the time assigned to each paper.

5. No candidate will be allowed to leave the examination room till the expiry of at least half an hour after a question paper has been given out, and no candidate who leaves the room during the period allotted for a paper will be allowed to return within that period.

6. Candidates are forbidden to ask questions of any kind during the examination. They are further forbidden to communicate with the examiners, should they do so, their answers will not be valued, and their conduct will be reported to the Syndicate for disciplinary action.

7. Candidates are not allowed the use of books of any kind (except as provided in rule 8). They are also prohibited from introducing into the examination room any book or portion of a book, slate, manuscript, or paper of any description; from communicating with or copying from each other; and from communicating with any person outside the examination room. Any candidate detected in the violation of these rules will be sent out of the room forthwith, and his conduct will be reported to the Registrar. The use of utensils at University examinations is not permitted except to students answering papers in Mathematics. The use of mathematical instruments whilst answering papers in Mathematics and in the Physical Sciences will be allowed. Such instruments will not be supplied by the University.

8. Clarke's Mathematical and Physical Tables will be supplied to candidates in groups (i) and (ii) of the Intermediate, B.A. and B.Sc. Degree Examinations.

9. Candidates are required to provide themselves with their own pens. Candidates may bring into the examination hall their own ink-bottles. They must, however, use only blue ink while answering their question papers.

10. Particular attention is requested to the instructions, regarding rough working and loose sheets of paper printed on the answer books. All rough working must be shown on the left hand page of the answer books themselves. No separate books for rough working will be supplied to candidates. Paper must not be detached from the answer books of candidates. If the ordinary answer books are found insufficient, additional books will be allowed and these should be securely fastened to the answer books.

11. As soon as candidates have finished writing their answers, and wish to give up their answer books, or at the end of the period prescribed for each particular part of the examination, each should stand up in his place and remain standing until one of the superintendents has gone up to him and received his answer book from him.

12. Communications to the Registrar from candidates requesting information relating to the results of examinations will not receive attention until after the publication of the results in the Fort St. George Gazette. Success or failure, however, will be communicated by telegraph, if prepaid.

The hall tickets of candidates sitting for the examinations at Madras will be ready for distribution at the Senate House four days before the date of each examination. Candidates sitting for the examinations at centres other than Madras should apply to the Chief Superintendent of the respective centre for their hall tickets.

Candidates appearing at centres where they are not known must be prepared to satisfy the Chief Superintendents of such centres as to their identity.

The Time-tables for the several examinations are as follows:—

IN THE MATTER OF THE INDIAN COMPANIES ACT, 1913, AND OF THE FREDERIC GAEBELE & CO., LIMITED.

Whereas from the fact that communications addressed to Frederic Gaebele & Co., Limited, at its registered office remained unanswered, it appeared that the company was not carrying on business or in operation, a notice, dated the 7th April 1923, was published on page 969 of the Fort St. George Gazette, Part II, dated the 17th April 1923, pursuant to section 247 (3) of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, to the effect that at the expiration of three months from the date of that notice, the name of the said company would, unless cause was shown to the contrary, be struck off the register and the said company would be dissolved. The company not having shown such cause within the time allowed which expired on the 7th July 1923, the name of the company has under section 247 (5) of the Act been struck off the register.

The Standard Barometer and Thermometers are read at 8 a.m., 10 a.m., 4 p.m. and 8 p.m., and the daily means are obtained by the application of hourly corrections, deduced from twenty years' observations. The cistern of the Barometer is twenty-two feet above the level of the sea, and the receiver of the rain-gauge is two feet from ground. The wind, rain and general weather registered are for the current Civil Day—from midnight to midnight.

The total quantity of rain collected since January 1st is 8·14 inches, the average due for the same period being 6·25 inches.
